THE AGRICULTURAL CONVENTION .- Mr. Wright, of the Nickerson House, columnia, has Convention at half fare, and to give the use of his large hall, free of charge, for the deliberations of the body. This is sensible and praiseworthy liberality.

BUILDINGS AND IMPROVEMENTS.-It is refreshing to observe the spirit of improvement which is manifesting itself on all sides in our city Dingy looking houses are being touched up and repaired, modifications to suit the requiremen s of the times are being made, and several fine new res dinces and warehouses are in contemplation or actually building. Decidedly, Charleston is looking up.

ATTEMPT AT BUBGLARY -An attempt was de on Funday morning last to break into the bt and on store of Douglass & Miller, corner of last Bay and Borce & Co's Wharf. One of the butters was forced open, but the turgiar did not succeed at , further having, doubtless, been frightened off by the brillsancy of the municipal stars on that "beat," or by the approach of daylight.

COLORED FAIRS .- There have been two colcred Fairs in progress in the city for the past eight furds to build a church, and the other at the corr of Meeting and Wentworth streets, for a charitable Thes: Fairs have been characterized by n orderly deportment and strict regard for proprie. w. We hope that they will be very successful.

THE THEATRE. - The emotional drama of Camille was put upon the boards last night by Temeton in a manner that won the commendation of the audience. It was somewhat a relief from the melange of the operatta, which has been presented for the past few i ights, and pave entire satisfaction to those present. Alice Vane, as Camille, showed the possess on of much histrionic talent, and in the varied phases of the character, was equal in earnestness and truthful portrayal to its requirements. Tonight, the last night, "Fatry and the Beauty."

THE SCHUTZENFEST-A GALA TIME EXPECT-ED .- At a meeting of the German Rifle Club, held a few nights ago, it was unanimously resolved to invite the New York, New Jersey and Washington Clubs to visit Charle-to on the occ.sion of the May festival of the Club, and partake of that whole-souled hospi lity which their brethren of this city are so able ready to dispense. The invitations will most robably be accepied, and the celebration will be one of the liveliest ever known in the history of the Mar h. The one cow recovered was turned over to Olub. The Schutz nfeet takes place on the 7th of May, and continues during the week.

FROST,-It would seem that the ill luck which has so long attended the efforts of the planters of long cotton to regain something of their former affluence and goods, which is very extensive, and comprises and comfort, and to restore the prespectly of the sea all the latest novalties as well as a full line of standlalance, clings to them still. A DIABOLICAL OUTRAGE. -On Friday eve- ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW, ning last, be weer six and seven o'clock, a colored man, who represented himself to be a policeman, berested a little white girl about eleven years of age, in the upper wards, telling her that, in consequence the Guardhouse but that as this would involve too time and trouble, besides costing ,25, he would take her to his home for satekeeping. As bon as he put hands upon her the child screamed Molently. Still he persisted in his design, and cargled ber as far as the corner of Line and Rutledge sixocts, where the child again shricked and scream-This attracted the attention of some persons the vicinity, who came to her rescue. The undrel fled at once and cou'd not be identified or captured. The chi d was in a dreadful state of nervousness from the terrible tright the hod received, and, unfortunately, cannot sufficiently describe the villam to give any hope of his detection and punish-ne Missi opary Record of Saturday, acknowledges that his i divicualism in conducting his paper himself, and exclusively as the organ of the African Me hodist Church bas caused him to receive more kicks than do lars, and he now proposes to make some changes. In future the Record will be open to all who wish to patronize it, and the next issue will come forth under a new idea and free from all tra mmels " In regard to Mr. Cortin and the wooien buildings business, Cain say :

en buildings business, Cain say:

I know that Mr. Corbin does but express his true sentiments when he says he regards me as 'too contemptible a character for his notice." There is such a thing as a man's being too mean to comp chend his obligations to a commany and a people to whom he owes his elevation to office and piace. In a conversation with him on the bill to vasidate the city election, I suggested thim the possibility of a collision, and the suffering of the poor colored people, who would be the greatest sufferers in case of such an event. He said 'he did no cue; if it was necessary to co quer those d—in refer and vanctate the right of the parties claiming the office he was willing to see the city in flame and scattered in ashes." I felt that it Mr. Corbin telt thus careless about life and the poor, and had in the symiathy, such as he expressed, that surely he did not have much regard for them.

THE OPERA.-The grand opera troupe, of w hi h we spoke yesterday, will give two entertainments; 'he first on Saturday night next and the second on Monday night. On Saturday the programme will be a miscellan ous operatio concert, and the Miserere from Il Trovatore. On Monday, Donizetti's charming opera, Don Pasquale, will be performed. The prima dones of the troupe, Mdlle, Durand, is a native of Charlesion, and will, we are sure, receive a warm welcome. Although young in her profession, she has already gained a high position, her charming voice having been cultivated wit unusual pationce and care, bignor Brignoli, well known in London and in Paris, has been for fourteen years the leading tenor in the United States. His voice is as pure and sw. et a. when he was in charles ton ten years ago, and it is not often that we have the opportunity of hearing in this city an artist who knows no superior in his melodious profession. In ad di icn to Molle. Durand and Signor Brignoli, we have Signor Petri li. baritone; Signor card, buffo; Si gnor Locatelli and Sigi or St. fanone, bassi. This is an embarras de riches es, and it is promised that the progr. mme shall be sea tractive as the reputation of the singers is high Scordious poison is one of the most distructive enemies of our race. Often this unseen and untell tensh of the organis n undermines the constitution, and invites the stack of satesbling or tabl diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection through the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or smong the vitals.
